

Brazos Abiertos 8th Annual Community Festival

Greetings! You are invited!

The Hispanic Service Providers (HSP) are hosting the 8th Annual Brazos Abiertos/Open Arms Festival on April 10, 2011, from 2:00 p.m. to 6:00 p.m., at the Collins-Riverside Middle School gymnasium.

Brazos Abiertos, Open Arms, is a Hispanic/Latino festival that will serve as a resource and health fair as well as a cultural exchange. Brazos/Abiertos is an annual event that allows the Hispanic/Latino population access to information regarding pertinent issues. Community representatives, with interpreters on hand, will be available to answer any questions or concerns. The event strives to educate the Latino community about the services that are available within Tuscaloosa. This year's theme is "Juntos Para Un Futuro Mejor" meaning "Together For a Better Future." Presentations will be offered in English and Spanish on pertinent immigration issues and on strengthening families.
